TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These terms outline the contractual agreement between BMA Conventions and the participating firm.

Registration & Access - Event access is strictly non-transferable and limited to the registered attendee only. All seating, meals, networking opportunities, sessions, and learning materials are reserved exclusively for the individual named on the registration.

Event Changes - The organizer reserves the right to make reasonable modifications to the event schedule, speakers, content, date, or venue if required. Such changes do not constitute grounds for compensation or refund.

Liability & Force Majeure - The organizer shall not be held liable for any delay, disruption, or cancellation caused by circumstances beyond its control, including but not limited to natural disasters, government regulations, public health emergencies, or other unforeseen events.

Health, Safety & Conduct - All attendees must comply with applicable health, safety, and security protocols. Any behavior deemed disruptive, unsafe, or inappropriate may result in removal from the event without refund or compensation.

Insurance & Personal Property - The organizer is not responsible for loss, theft, or damage to personal belongings, equipment, or materials. Attendees are responsible for arranging their own insurance coverage if required.

Intellectual Property & Media Use - All event content, presentations, and materials are the intellectual property of the organizer. Recording, photographing, or distributing event content without prior written consent is prohibited. Attendance implies consent to photography and video recording for promotional purposes unless written notice is provided in advance.

Cancellation Policy - The Client acknowledges that participation under this Agreement is a critical component of the event. Upon execution of this Agreement, all fees become fully earned, non-refundable, and non-cancellable, whether before or after the event. The Organizer does not guarantee attendance levels or business outcomes, and fees are not contingent upon delegate turnout, leads, or ROI. Cancellation, non-attendance, or withdrawal by the Client does not relieve the Client of payment obligations. The Client agrees to pay the full contract amount and all reasonable collection, legal, and court costs incurred to recover any outstanding balances.

Data Protection & Communication - Personal data will be handled in accordance with the organizer's privacy policy and may be used for event-related communication and updates about future events unless the attendee opts out.

Technology & Services - Reasonable technical support will be provided; however, uninterrupted internet connectivity or technical services cannot be guaranteed. Any additional technical requirements or costs remain the responsibility of the attendee.

Governing Law - This agreement is governed by the laws of Virginia, USA. Any disputes shall be resolved through good-faith negotiation before pursuing legal remedies.
